/ Breakfast Kalevala with Tilman Spreckelsen
Literature & Non-Fiction | Guest of Honour 2014: Finland

The creation of the world from a duck's egg, a wizard in love, a miraculous mill that makes gold and flour out of nothing. The Finnish national epic "Kalevala" is one of the greatest poetic works of literature and inspired artists such as Jean Sibelius, J. R. R. Tolkien or the creators of the Donald-Duck-comics. All this is reason enough to talk about "Kalevala" on every book fair morning.

/ Can the Baltic Sea Be Saved?
Guest of Honour 2014: Finland

The Baltic Sea is a sphere of interaction in the cross sea between the East and the West, the South and the North. Seafaring, trade, the aspiration for power, the exchange of information shaped this area as long as it has been inhabited. Human habitats and actions along the Baltic Sea's coasts have permanently damaged its sensitive eco-system.

13.00 - 13.20 | Reading

/ Tuomas Kyrö: Kunkku

Literature & Non-Fiction | Guest of Honour 2014: Finland

Known as poised satirist and humorist, Tuomas Kyrö reads from his new novel "Kunkku", in which he illustrates the life of the last (fictive) king of Finland and rewrites the history of the 20th century along the way - wonderfully peculiar and beyond any political correctness.

Organiser: Finnland. Cool.Participants: Kyrö, Tuomas | Moster, StefanVenue: Finland Pavilion / Cool. Stage., Forum, Ebene/Level 1, Exhibition siteLanguage: German | English | Finnish

13.00 - 13.20 | Reading

/ Mauri Antero Numminen: Tango ist meine Leidenschaft

Guest of Honour 2014: Finland

The author presents his book in which the tango-lover Virtanen has taken a vow according to Platon's idea to stay a virgin until his 36th birthday. A pact that's quite inconsistent with Virtanen's passionate way of dancing the Finnish tango. When he falls in love with his dance partner, catastrophe ensues.

/ Hannu Raittila: Kontinentaldrift
Literature & Non-Fiction | Guest of Honour 2014: Finland

The author's works are often social satires and balance on the line between fact and fiction. "Kontinentaldrift" is about two neglected girls, who as teenagers hung around at the airport and dreamed of far-off countries. Years later Johan embarks on a search for his missing daughter to repair their relationship, the bonds of which were once broken like continents drifting apart.
