Translation fee (in euros) *

Only an integer value may be entered in this field.

Please write your answer here:

State the translation fee agreed between the publisher and the translator.

For successful applicants: Translation grants are paid after the translator of the work has notified FILI via email (grants@finlit.fi) that he/she has received the full translation fee as stated in the translation agreement and in the translation grant application.

The publisher must pay the entire translation fee according to a translation contract agreed between the publisher and the translator. A translation grant from FILI is only covers part of the translation fee.

Total printing costs (in euros) *

Only numbers may be entered in this field.

Please write your answer here:

Applications for printing grants must be accompanied by a recent printer's estimate and a budget for the project with itemised printing costs. The budget must be in English.
